A diagram of the formal student procedures available at the University of Cambridge

* starred procedures are currently being considered for implementation in October 2017

- coloured procedures are handled, in at least one stage, by the Office of Student Conduct, Complaints and Appeals - oscca@admin.cam.ac.uk

Student conduct
- Student misconduct
  - Linked to health
  - Linked to professional programme

Student applications/appeals
- Serious illness or grave cause
  - For some Graduate students
  - For non-Graduate students
  - Med/vet/law additional attempts at exams

- Reasonable adjustments required (disabled students)

Student complaints
- Students dissatisfied with University (not covered by another procedure)
  - Applications/Board of Graduate Studies process
  - Alternative mode of assessment process
  - Faculty procedure
  - Exam allowances (Board of Graduate Studies)
  - Exam allowances (Applications Committee)

Procedure for handling cases of student harassment and sexual misconduct

Procedure to Determine Fitness to Study

Examination Review Procedure*”

Review of University Decisions Procedure*”

Fee remission/withdrawal decision

Discipline regulations

Fitness to Practise Procedure

OIA